

Hello M,

Happy Holidays from UTN to you and your loved ones! December is the season of giving, and finding the perfect gift can be difficult. We've found this list of great gift ideas that are budget and DIY friendly. Check out the list here.

As 2018 comes to a close and the New Year is approaching we encourage you to start thinking about resolutions and ways to stick with them! You'd be surprised what positive thinking will do for your resolutions!

UTN has some exciting news to share with you! Katie Steine-Davis, Donor Services Manager made an appearance on Arizona Daily Mix & Suncoast Living this month. Tis the season of giving!

We also wanted to share some exciting news about one of our team members recent promotion: Ann Gettys! She is now our Director of Laboratory Operations where she oversees daily operations at all 3 laboratory sites to ensure the best possible quality of operations. Her promotion is forecasted to help UTN's growth today and in the future.

News Update:

UTN's Donor Services Manager: Katie Steine-Davis made a guest appearance on Suncoast View and Arizona Daily Mix. She shared Seth Murphy's amazing story and selfless donation. During her time on the shows she was able to educate viewers on whole-body donation.

News Update:

UTN supports the advancement of medical research and development to show their never-ending support, they are attending Nicole Jarvis Parkinson's Gala this month!