

Stay Connected with your Loved Ones while Social Distancing

During the current COVID-19 pandemic, we understand there are times where you want to stay connected with the people you love the most. Below you will find a few tips and tricks on how to stay connected.

Video Chat on your Phone

If there's little ones in your family circle missing you, there's lots of different creative ways to talk over video chat:

- Read favorite stories
 - Your old time favorites and new books as well!
- Talk about your elementary days successes & struggles
 - Many students are understanding how to do distant learning
- Take screenshots of your video chats
 - You can share face-to-face later on when you're together again
- Schedule a Playdate
 - Watch your favorite shows together, sing songs or encourage different art projects

Apps to stay together

Facebook Messenger
Facetime
Duo
Zoom

See more options here

Send e-Cards for Special Occasions

With many upcoming celebrations, like Graduations, Birthdays, Anniversaries and Summertime, sending a thoughtful card is typically on our minds. e-Cards are great ways to tell your loved ones that you're thinking about them and putting a smile on their face.

A few websites offer cards that are interactive and the option to save/print to save your memories.

More information here

Donor Tribute Page

We encourage all of our Pledges or ones who have donated a loved one to science, to visit our Donor Tribute Page. Share a memory as to why you decided to Pledge Yourself or a Loved One.

Donor Tributes