As the year winds down to a close we are all relieved to see steps in the right direction of improvement out in the world. October is a month of friends, pumpkins, and colorful leaves and we are all anxious and ready to enjoy these things together. Warm drinks and family time will be a nice break from the chaos of our lives as we get ready for the Holiday season, just around the corner.

Looking for something to do this October?

As the weather cools down and the world starts to open back up, it's time to start making plans to spend time with family, and reconnect with the world around us. If you're looking for some ideas to do this month, check out the article below for 55 October activities.

National Breast Cancer Awareness Month: #Together

Join United Tissue Network as we observe National Breast Cancer Awareness month. This is a cancer that affects many of us either directly and indirectly at some point in our lifetime. The slogan for this year's campaign "#together" calls for a unifying front to combat this cancer. With everyone's support and vow to work together, we can become a force "to get her" access to the care she needs.
